Presbyterian Hospital proposes renovation and expansion

RALEIGH – Presbyterian Hospital has submitted an application to the Certificate of Need Section of the N.C. Division of Health Service Regulation to renovate and expand the main hospital located at 200 Hawthorne Lane in Charlotte.

A public hearing for the project will be conducted by the CON Section on March 18 at 1:00 p.m. in Room 267 of the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Government Center, 600 E. Fourth St., in Charlotte.

The $48.2-million project involves the following:

- Renovation of the first and second floors of the E-Wing
- Construction of the G-Wing, a three-story addition that will link the existing E- and F-Wings
- Expansion and renovation of Surgical Services, including an increase of seven operating rooms to be relocated from Presbyterian Orthopedic Hospital
- Expansion and renovation of the Emergency Department
- Relocation of four endoscopy rooms
- Expansion of surgical services and emergency services administrative and support space.

Completion of the project is scheduled for 2011.

Anyone may file written comments concerning these proposals. Comments must be received by the Certificate of Need Section no later than March 3 at the following address:
